Who We Are

A former art dealer, Claire Roderick Keerl worked for several prominent New York City galleries including Pace, Hirschl & Adler, and André Emmerich. She has curated art exhibitions; has advised private collectors on acquisitions and sales; and has appraised art for individuals, institutions, the I.R.S. and the Art Dealers Association. She has been a juror for commissioned art, and has lectured to public groups. Claire graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Massachusetts College of Art + Design and has a Master of Arts degree from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

Since 1974, CREIGER GROUP has been providing a wide range of art services for architects, designers, purchasing agents, and real estate developers.

We have been actively involved in the national and international art scene for more than 40 years, and have developed unlimited resources, important connections, and direct access to distinctive artists, publishers, dealers, and galleries worldwide.

We help our clients articulate and allocate a budget for art, as well as identifying the appropriate style, medium, and scope of art for each unique space. We manage the particular logistics of art acquisition including purchasing, shipping, framing, installing and insuring.
